DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Thurkauf et al., U.S. Patent Number 5,326,868.

Thurkauf discloses pyrrole derivatives with the structure

The reference reads on the instant claims when X is hydrogen and Ar is  wherein B is nitrogen; A is carbon and R<sub>3</sub> and R<sub>4</sub> are hydrogen. The Thurkauf reference has the same pyrrole derivative as in the present claims and would be expected to have a wavelength giving a fluorescence maximum of not more than 500 nm.

3. Claims 1-4 and 6-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 06-001972.

The Japanese reference discloses an organic electroluminescent element that comprises a compound that has a structure

The reference reads on the instant claims when A<sub>4</sub> is one of formulae (8), (10) or (11) of the reference. For the present claims, R<sub>1</sub> represents a heterocycle group that is consistent with formula (2) of the reference when A<sub>5</sub> and A<sub>6</sub> are formula (V) of the reference. The Japanese reference discloses a pyrrole derivative as in the present claims and would be expected to have a wavelength giving a fluorescence maximum of not more than 500 nm. Thus, the electroluminescent element in the Japanese reference would emit white or blue light.

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1-13 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-36 of copending Application No. 10/519,107. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both applications recite pyrrole derivatives that are used in electroluminescent elements. The referenced application recites a pyrrole derivative with the general formulae

and

However, the reference application also recites pyrrole derivatives such as

Art Unit: 1774

The referenced application contains generic pyrrole derivatives that read on the instant claims. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have the pyrrole derivatives of the referenced application since they encompass the species of the present claims. This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
